

EUROPEAN POPULATION CONFERENCE 2026

3-6 JUNE
BOLOGNA, ITALY

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

SPONSOR PROSPECTUS

We are delighted to invite you to the European Population Conference 2026, which will be held in Bologna on 3–6 June 2026.

Hosted by the European Association for Population Studies (EAPS), the European Population Conference is a major international event held biennially in a European city. It brings together population specialists, policymakers, academics, and government officials to discuss the latest research and address pressing population issues.

The theme of EPC 2026 is “Meeting New Realities”, highlighting the need for population studies to engage with the profound transformations reshaping societies. Researchers and decision-makers alike are called upon to understand both current and future impacts, and to explore the interconnections among global megatrends such as climate change, conflict, technological advancement, and shifting social dynamics.

Why Sponsor EPC 2026?

- Engage with Experts

Connect with over 1,000 attendees from academia, government, NGOs, industry, and professional practice.

- Showcase Your Brand

Present your organization's products and services to a highly targeted audience.

- Demonstrate Leadership

Take part in exclusive matchmaking sessions and signal your commitment to advancing research, innovation, and knowledge on population change.
